I. Product Description

The Products enable the holder thereof to benefit from an unlimited participation in any performance of the Underlying subject to the terms of the Product. Therefore, if the Underlying performs positively, an investment in the Products directly reflects the positive performance of the Underlying. Likewise, if the Underlying performs negatively, an investment in the Products directly reflects the negative performance of the Underlying and a total loss of the amount invested in the Products is possible, although any such loss is limited to the amount invested. On the Final Redemption Date, the Product is redeemed at the Final Redemption Amount, which amount will be dependent upon the performance of the Underlying (including its Costs), and will also be adjusted for applicable Fees and costs.

The Products have a fixed maturity. The investors are entitled to redeem the Certificates as set out according to the conditions under “Early Redemption by the holder” and “Secondary Market”.

The Product is a static tracker certificate, whose underlying is an actively managed, notional basket of securities only used for referential purposes to determine the strategy value of the tracker certificate. These Products are aimed at investors who expect a positive performance of the Underlying. It should be noted that the Underlying is linked to a “notional” portfolio and there is no actual portfolio of assets to which any person is entitled or in which any person has an ownership interest. Investors in the Products should accordingly be aware that given the nature of this Product, the Underlying (or any hedges or investments made in connection therewith (“Hedge”)) cannot and will not in any way be held by the Issuer for the benefit of the investors of the Products. For the avoidance of any doubt, the investors of the Products will not obtain any right, title, interest or benefit whatsoever to the Underlying (or its Hedge) and will not have any voting or other rights (including in any (notional) assets included in the Underlying (or its Hedge)). The Issuer is not obligated to buy, hold, manage or sell the Underlying or any securities referenced thereunder or to have any right, title, interest or benefit in relation to any of the foregoing. However, the Issuer may, at its sole discretion, buy, sell and/or hold assets, which may or may not be identical to the Underlying, for itself solely for hedging its risks in relation to the Products.

III. Significant Risks for Investors

The following risk disclosure cannot disclose all the risks associated with an investment in the Products. Therefore, potential investors in Products should consult the Base Prospectus and the Final Terms and their client advisor as to the product specific risks before making an investment decision.

1. Issuer Risk

Investors bear the credit risk of the Issuer. The Products' retention of value is dependent not only on the development of the value of the Underlying, but also on the creditworthiness of the Issuer, which may change over the term of the Product. The credit rating of the Issuer is not a guarantee of credit quality. In case of the Issuer's insolvency or bankruptcy the investors in the Products may lose their entire investment.

The Products are direct, unconditional, unsecured and unsubordinated obligations of the Issuer. If the Issuer were to become insolvent, claims of investors in Products will rank equally in right of payment with all other unsecured and unsubordinated obligations of the Issuer, except such obligations given priority by law. In such a case, investors in Products may suffer a loss of all or a portion of their investment therein, irrespective of any favourable development of the other value determining factors, such as the performance of the Underlying.

The Products do not constitute bank accounts or deposits at Bank Julius Baer & Co. Ltd. The Products are less liquid than bank accounts or deposits and bear higher risks. An investment in Products will not be covered by any compensation or insurance scheme (such as a bank deposit protection scheme) of any government agency of Switzerland or any other jurisdiction and Products do not have the benefit of any government guarantee. Products are the obligations of the Issuer only and holders of Products must look solely to the Issuer for the performance of the Issuer's obligations under such Products. In the event of the insolvency of the Issuer, an investor in Products may lose all or some of its investment therein.

Bank Julius Baer & Co. Ltd. is a bank pursuant to the Federal Banking Act (BA; SR 952.0) and a securities dealer pursuant to the Federal Act on Stock Exchanges and Complex Products Trading (SESTA; SR 954.1) subject to the prudential supervision by the Swiss Financial Market Supervisory Authority FINMA in Berne (Laupenstrasse 27, CH-3003 Berne; <http://www.finma.ch>).

2. Product Risks

An investment in Products entails certain risks, which vary depending on the specific type and structure of the relevant Products and the relevant Underlying.

An investment in Products requires a thorough understanding of the nature of Products. Potential investors in Products should be experienced with respect to an investment in complex financial instruments and be aware of the related risks. A potential investor in Products should determine the suitability of such an investment in light of such investor's particular circumstances. In particular, a potential investor in Products should:

- have sufficient knowledge and experience to make a meaningful evaluation of Products, the merits and risks of investing in Products and the information contained in the Base Prospectus and the applicable Terms and Conditions;

- have access to, and knowledge of, appropriate analytical tools to evaluate, in the context of such investor's particular financial situation, an investment in Products and the impact the relevant Products will have on such investor's overall investment portfolio;
- have sufficient financial resources to bear all the risks of an investment in the relevant Products;
- understand thoroughly the Terms and Conditions applicable to the relevant Products and be familiar with the behaviour of the relevant Underlying and financial markets;
- be able to evaluate (either alone or with the help of a financial adviser) possible scenarios for economic and other factors that may affect such investor's investment and ability to bear the applicable risks of an investment in Products until their redemption; and
- recognise that it may not be possible to dispose of Products for a substantial period of time, if at all, before their redemption.

The trading market for securities, such as Products, may be volatile and may be adversely impacted by many events.

Products are complex financial instruments. Investors generally purchase complex financial instruments as a way to enhance yield with an understood, measured, appropriate addition of risk to their overall investment portfolios. A potential investor should not invest in Products unless such investor has the expertise (either alone or with the help of a financial adviser) to evaluate how the relevant Products will perform under changing conditions, the resulting effects on the market value of the relevant Products and the impact such an investment will have on such investor's overall investment portfolio.

Risk of total loss

Products involve a high degree of risk, and prospective investors in the Products should recognise that, under certain circumstances, Products may have a redemption value of zero. Prospective investors should therefore be prepared to sustain a partial or total loss of the amount of their investment therein.

Unpredictable Market Value for Products

During the term of a Product, the market value of, and the expected return on, such Product may be influenced by many factors, some or all of which may be unpredictable. Many economic and market factors will influence the market value of a Product. The Issuer expects that, generally, the value and volatility of the Underlying on any day will affect the market value of such Product more than any other single factor. However, a potential investor should not expect the market value of a Product in the secondary market to vary in proportion to changes in the value of the Underlying. The return on a Product (if any) may bear little relation to, and may be much less than, the return that the investor therein might have achieved if such investor had invested directly in the Underlying.

The market value of, and return (if any) on, a Product will be affected by a number of other factors, which may be unpredictable or beyond the Issuer's control, and which may offset or magnify each other, including, without limitation:

- supply and demand for such Product, including inventory positions of any other market maker;
- the expected frequency and magnitude of changes in the market value of the Underlying (volatility);
- economic, financial, political or regulatory events or judicial decisions that affect the Issuer, the Underlying or the financial markets generally;
- interest and yield rates in the market generally;
- the time remaining until the Final Redemption Date;
- if applicable, the difference between the Level or Commodity Reference Price, as applicable, and the relevant threshold specified in the applicable Terms and Conditions;
- the Issuer's creditworthiness, including actual or anticipated downgrades in the Issuer's credit ratings; and
- dividend payments on the Underlying, if any.

Some or all of these factors may influence the price of a Product. The impact of any of the factors set forth above may enhance or offset some or all of any change resulting from another factor or factors.

In addition, certain built-in costs are likely to adversely affect the market value of Products. The price at which the Issuer will be willing to purchase Products from a holder in secondary market transactions, if at all, will likely be lower than the original Issue Price.

Exposure to the performance of the Underlyings

Each Product will represent an investment linked to the performance of the Underlying and potential investors should note that any amount(s) payable or other benefit to be received under the Products will generally depend upon the performance of the Underlying. The past performance of the Underlying is not indicative of the future performance.

Exchange Rate Risk

The Underlying may be denominated in a currency other than that of the Issue Currency or, if applicable, the Settlement Currency for such Product, or the Underlying may be denominated in a currency other than, or the Issue Currency or, if applicable, the Settlement Currency may not be, the currency of the home jurisdiction of the investor in such Product. Exchange rates between currencies are determined by factors of supply and demand in the international currency markets, which are in particular influenced by macro economic factors, speculation and central bank and government intervention (including the imposition of currency controls and restrictions). Therefore, fluctuations in exchange rates may adversely affect the market value of a Product or the value of the Underlying.

Secondary Market

Products may have no established trading market when issued and one may never develop. If a market does develop, it may not be liquid. Therefore, investors may not be able to sell their Products easily or at prices reasonably acceptable to them.

Under normal market circumstances, the Issuer will endeavour to provide a secondary market for Products, but is under no obligation to do so. Upon investor demand, the Issuer will endeavour to provide bid/offer prices for Products, based on actual market conditions.

The purchases and sales have a weekly liquidity and will be executed on Monday of each week, as long as the notification arrives until 16:00 CET one business day before.

Depending on the composition of the Underlying, investors must also be aware of an increased spread risk. This means that during the term of the Product, bid and offer prices may differ to a considerable extent. It is important to note that in the secondary market, if a market does develop, the Issuer cannot guarantee to repurchase/sell unlimited volumes of the Product at the prices provided by the Lead Manager. For large sale/purchase orders (compared to the issued volume of the Product) the Issuer may charge a fee of 0.25% (based on the net price). Such orders may not be executed at once and investors may have to bear considerable delays. The Issuer has at no time an obligation to repurchase/sell the Product.

Early Redemption by Issuer

The investors must be aware of a possible early redemption of the Product.

Upon the occurrence of an extraordinary event, the Calculation Agent and the Issuer, acting together, have the right to, among other things, early redeem the relevant Products. If the Issuer exercises such early redemption right(s), investors should be aware that the early redemption price may be considerably lower than the Issue Price (or, if different, the price the relevant investor paid for such product) and/or the Final Redemption Amount that would otherwise have been paid on the Final Redemption Date.

Issuer Call Option

The Products provide an Issuer Call Option (i.e., the Issuer may, on any Call Date, exercise its right to redeem the Products, in whole but not in part, on the applicable Final Redemption Date at the Final Redemption Amount). The Issuer and each investor in any such Product may exercise its Issuer Call Option, respectively, at its own discretion.

Further product specific risks

The Products are complex financial instruments, may therefore involve a high degree of risk and are intended for use only by sophisticated investors who are capable of understanding and assuming the risks involved. Before entering into any transaction, an investor should determine if this Product is suitable with regards to the particular circumstances and should independently assess (together with the client advisor) the specific risks as described herein and any other legal, regulatory or credit consequences. The Issuer makes no representation as to the suitability or appropriateness of this Product for any particular investor. This document does not replace (where applicable) a personal discussion with your client advisor, which may be tailored to your requirements, investment objectives, experience, knowledge and circumstances and which may be recommended by the Issuer before the investment decision. Please ask the Issuer for supporting information regarding this Product.

A total loss of the amount invested in such Products is possible, but any such loss is limited to the amount invested.

Furthermore, potential investors should also carefully consider the risks related to the Underlying.

Risks Relating to the Underlying

The Products are linked to the Underlying, which is a structured product linked to on a Brazilian Fixed Income Portfolio, used only for referential purposes to determine the Certificate Value of the said structured product. Since the Underlying comprises a notional basket of securities and the basket is actively managed by the advisor of the structured product, the performance of the basket and hence the performance of the Underlying depend on the quality of the investment decisions of the advisor. As past performance is no guarantee of future development, the performance cannot be predicted at the time of the investment decision. Investors should only acquire the Product if he or she has fully understood the structure of the Product and all risks associated thereto. Investors should be aware that an investment in these Products generally results in a loss upon redemption if the value of the Underlying decreases. Consequently, the potential loss associated with an investment in such Products is linked to the negative performance of the Underlying. Investors in the Products should be prepared to sustain a partial or total loss of their investment.

Owning this Product is not the same as owning the Underlying or values covered by the Underlying or the basket of securities referenced thereunder. The Issuer is not obligated to actually buy, hold or sell the Underlying or any securities referenced thereunder. Investors in this Product should be aware that the Underlying or any part thereof will not in any event be held by the Issuer for the benefit of the holders of the Product. Accordingly, changes in the market value of the Underlying or the values covered by the Underlying may not result in a comparable change in the market value of the Product.

The Issuer and affiliated companies may from time to time enter into transactions for their own account or for the account of a client that are related to the Products. These transactions may not be for the benefit of the investor and may have positive or negative effects on the value of the Underlying and thus on the value of the Products. Dividend equivalent payments:

Investors should note that "dividend equivalent" payments made in connection with the Products are subject to an U.S. federal withholding tax under Section 871(m) of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code. The Issuer will apply a withholding of 30 percent (subject to reduction under double taxation treaties, if applicable) on such dividend equivalent payments linked to a stocks of U.S. corporations or certain indices containing U.S. corporations. Accordingly, the investor may receive less than the amount he would have otherwise received in the absence of such withholding.

Investment Universe	The notional Underlying can include USD denominated straight bonds, floater bonds, inflation linkers (TIPS), perpetuals, zero bonds and covered bonds with a minimal issue size of USD 100mio. The liquidity of potential credit bonds must be sufficient with respect to the issued volume of the Certificates. Therefore the Sponsor has the right to reject components which form part of the Investment Universe (see „Right of Objection“ below). Besides the aforementioned assets, the notional Underlying may contain a cash component in the Product's currency. This cash component may reach temporarily up to 100%. No interest is paid on this cash component. A negative interest rate may be applied due to market conditions.

Change of Basket Composition	The Sponsor will use its best effort to implement the Advisor's investment decisions as soon as practical. This may take several days as the Sponsor might have to enter into respective hedging transactions relating to its obligations under the Products due to its position as Issuer of the Products. No assurance can be given that all investment decisions will be realized as intended by the Advisor. The Sponsor implements the changes in the notional composition of the basket on a discretionary basis at the respective net ask and bid prices available on the market or, if he considers this necessary due to the market constellation, the Sponsor implements it on a discretionary basis at the respective average net ask and bid prices of the assets.
Right of Objection	The Sponsor has the right to reject components selected by the Advisor at his sole discretion should any situation whatsoever arise whereby the Sponsor (a) due to applicable rules, regulations and internal or external restrictions, or (b) due to technical constraints cannot execute the Advisor's investment decision or (c) due to any other reasons is unable to hedge its position as Issuer of the Products, is not able to buy, hold or sell the Underlying or any component thereof (as if the Underlying is not notional).
No Notional Reinvestment of the Returns	The Sponsor does not (re-)invest any net returns (coupon payments deducting possible withholding taxes) into the corresponding assets.
Adjustments	The Sponsor decides according to the terms outlined in the Base Prospectus and the Final Terms how the basket is adjusted when dilution and concentration effects notionally affecting the Underlying occur, investors' rights change as well as in comparable situations. The adjustments are implemented on or around the respective trading day. No liabilities are assumed by the Sponsor due to possible infringements of the Investment Guidelines which might occur as a consequence of such adjustments. The value of the Underlying is not retroactively adjusted.
Responsibility	Subject to the Investment Guidelines, the Advisor is responsible for the composition of the basket and the weighting of the Underlying components. The performance of the Underlying - and therefore of the Product - depends, among other things, on the quality of the Advisor's investment decisions. The Sponsor is only responsible for the administration of the Product. Neither the Issuer nor the Sponsor assume responsibility whatsoever for the composition of the Underlying, any adjustments to the Underlying, and its impact on the performance of the Products.
Information about the Investment Strategy	Further Information about the Investment Strategy is free of charge available from the Issuer upon request.
Composition of the Underlying	Information about the current composition of the Underlying is available from the Issuer upon request.

Payments under a Product will essentially be in the nature of a debt due from the Issuer to the redeeming holder of a Certificate separate and distinct from payments under any other Certificate.

Swiss Taxation

Stamp duty	Issuance and secondary market transactions are in principle subject to the Federal Turnover Tax ("Umsatzabgabe") if a securities dealer ("Effekthändler"), as defined in the Swiss Federal Act on Stamp Duties ("Stempelabgabengesetz"), is a party to the transaction or acts as an intermediary thereto.
Withholding tax	No Swiss Federal withholding tax.
Income tax	For private investors (individuals) with tax residence in Switzerland, the Product is treated like a unit of a collective investment scheme. The Issuer informs the Swiss Federal Tax Administration about the capital gains/losses and the earnings on the assets on an annual basis. Only the declared net earnings on the assets are subject to income tax.

The aforementioned tax description is based on the relevant tax laws and regulations of the tax authorities valid at the time of launch of this issue. These laws and regulations may change at any time, possibly with retroactive effect. Furthermore the tax treatment may depend on the personal situation of the investor and may be subject to change in the future. This information is not purported to be a complete description of all potential tax effects. Potential investors are advised to consult their tax advisors to determine the special tax consequences of the purchase, ownership or disposition of the Product.

General Tax Information

Transactions and payments related to this product may be subject to additional (foreign) transaction taxes and or withholding taxes such as US withholding taxes pursuant to FATCA (Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act) or the Section 871(m) of the US Internal Revenue Code. Any amounts due, shall be paid net of such taxes. The issuer is not obliged to pay additional amounts with regard to amounts so withheld.

Product Description

The Products are financial instruments which allow the investor to fully participate in the positive performance of the Underlying, but which also reflect the development of the Underlying if its performance is negative. The Underlying is an actively managed notional basket of securities, as described above under section "Underlying".

On the Final Redemption Date, the Product is redeemed at the Final Redemption Amount, which amount will be dependent upon the performance of the Underlying, and will also be adjusted for applicable fees and costs.

The Products enable the holder thereof to benefit from an unlimited participation in any positive performance of the Underlying, subject to the terms of the Products. Therefore, if the Underlying performs positively, an investment in the Products directly reflects the positive performance of the Underlying. Likewise, if the Underlying performs negatively, an investment in the Products directly reflects the negative performance of the Underlying. Therefore, the risk associated with an investment in the Products is comparable to the risk associated with a direct investment in the Underlying, and a total loss of the amount invested in the Products is possible, although any such loss is limited to the amount invested.

There is no obligation on the Issuer to purchase and/or hold any components contained in the Underlying. The Issuer shall be free to choose how to invest the proceeds from the issuance of the Products (see page 10 under section "Further Product Specific Risks").

The Products provides for an investor a termination right (Holder Put Option) subject to a 365 (1 Year) written notice and for the Issuer an Issuer termination right (Issuer Call Option) subject to a 35 days written notice.

It should be noted that the Underlying is a "notional" portfolio and there is no actual portfolio of assets to which any person is entitled or in which any person has an ownership interest. Investors in the Product should accordingly be aware that given the nature of the Product, the Underlying (or any hedges or investments made in connection therewith ("Hedge")) cannot and will not in any way be held by the Issuer for the benefit of the investors of the Product. For the avoidance of any doubt, the investors of the Product will not obtain any right, title, interest or benefit whatsoever to the Underlying (or its Hedge) and will not have any voting or other rights (including in any (notional) assets included in the Underlying (or its Hedge)). The Issuer is not obligated to buy, hold, manage or sell the Underlying or any securities referenced thereunder or to have any right, title, interest or benefit in relation to any of the foregoing. However, the Issuer may, at its sole discretion, buy, sell and/or hold assets, which may or may not be identical to the Underlying, for itself solely for hedging its risks in relation to the Certificates. The Issuer shall be free to choose how to invest the proceeds from the issuance of the Products.

VI. Profit and Loss Prospects

This Product is aimed at investors who expect a positive performance of the Underlying. The potential return on a Product is not limited, but dependent on the value of the Underlying, i.e. the investor benefits fully from an increase in the value of the Underlying over the term of the Product and the quality of the investment decisions of the Advisor.

The potential loss associated with an investment in the Products is also dependent on the value of the Underlying. A total loss may occur if the Underlying and the securities notionally contained in the actively managed basket, respectively, have no value on the Final Fixing Date.

VII. Significant Risks for Investors

The following risk disclosure cannot disclose all the risks associated with an investment in the Products. Therefore, potential investors in Products should consult the Base Prospectus and the Final Terms and their client advisor as to the product specific risks before making an investment decision.

1. Issuer Risk

Investors bear the credit risk of the Issuer. The Products' retention of value is dependent not only on the development of the value of the Underlying, but also on the creditworthiness of the Issuer, which may change over the term of the Product. The credit rating of the Issuer is not a guarantee of credit quality. In case of the Issuer's insolvency or bankruptcy the investors in the Products may lose their entire investment.

The Products are direct, unconditional, unsecured and unsubordinated obligations of the Issuer. If the Issuer were to become insolvent, claims of investors in Products will rank equally in right of payment with all other unsecured and unsubordinated obligations of the Issuer, except such obligations given priority by law. In such a case, investors in Products may suffer a loss of all or a portion of their investment therein, irrespective of any favourable development of the other value determining factors, such as the performance of the Underlying(s).

The Products do not constitute bank accounts or deposits at Bank Julius Baer & Co. Ltd. The Products are less liquid than bank accounts or deposits and bear higher risks. An investment in Products will not be covered by any compensation or insurance scheme (such as a bank deposit protection scheme) of any government agency of Switzerland or any other jurisdiction and Products do not have the benefit of any government guarantee. Products are the obligations of the Issuer only and holders of Products must look solely to the Issuer for the performance of the Issuer's obligations under such Products. In the event of the insolvency of the Issuer, an investor in Products may lose all or some of its investment therein.

Bank Julius Baer & Co. Ltd. is a bank pursuant to the Federal Banking Act (BA; SR 952.0) and a securities dealer pursuant to the Federal Act on Stock Exchanges and Complex Products Trading (SESTA; SR 954.1) subject to the prudential supervision by the Swiss Financial Market Supervisory Authority FINMA in Berne (Laupenstrasse 27, CH-3003 Berne; <http://www.finma.ch>).

The Issuer, Bank Julius Baer & Co. Ltd, Guernsey Branch (a branch of Bank Julius Baer & Co. Ltd., Zurich, founded in Switzerland and under the supervision of the Swiss Financial Market Supervisory Authority FINMA), is licensed in Guernsey under the Banking Supervision (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law 1994 and The Protection of Investors (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law 1987. Neither the Guernsey Financial Services Commission (P.O. Box 128, Glatigny Court, Glatigny Esplanade, St. Peter Port, Guernsey, Channel Islands, GY1 3HQ) nor the States of Guernsey Policy Council takes any responsibility for the financial soundness of the Issue or for the correctness of any of the statements made or opinions expressed with regard to it.

2. Product Risks

An investment in Products entails certain risks, which vary depending on the specific type and structure of the relevant Products and the relevant Underlying(s).

An investment in Products requires a thorough understanding of the nature of Products. Potential investors in Products should be experienced with respect to an investment in complex financial instruments and be aware of the related risks. A potential investor in Products should determine the suitability of such an investment in light of such investor's particular circumstances. In particular, a potential investor in Products should:

- have sufficient knowledge and experience to make a meaningful evaluation of Products, the merits and risks of investing in Products and the information contained in the Base Prospectus and the applicable Terms and Conditions;
- have access to, and knowledge of, appropriate analytical tools to evaluate, in the context of such investor's particular financial situation, an investment in Products and the impact the relevant Products will have on such investor's overall investment portfolio;
- have sufficient financial resources to bear all the risks of an investment in the relevant Products;
- understand thoroughly the Terms and Conditions applicable to the relevant Products and be familiar with the behaviour of the relevant Underlying(s) and financial markets;
- be able to evaluate (either alone or with the help of a financial adviser) possible scenarios for economic and other factors that may affect such investor's investment and ability to bear the applicable risks of an investment in Products until their redemption; and
- recognise that it may not be possible to dispose of Products for a substantial period of time, if at all, before their redemption.

The trading market for securities, such as Products, may be volatile and may be adversely impacted by many events.

Products are complex financial instruments. Investors generally purchase complex financial instruments as a way to enhance yield with an understood, measured, appropriate addition of risk to their overall investment portfolios. A potential investor should not invest in Products unless such investor has the expertise (either alone or with the help of a financial adviser) to evaluate how the relevant Products will perform under changing conditions, the resulting effects on the market value of the relevant Products and the impact such an investment will have on such investor's overall investment portfolio.

Risk of total loss

Products involve a high degree of risk, and prospective investors in the Products should recognise that, under certain circumstances, Products may have a redemption value of zero. Prospective investors should therefore be prepared to sustain a partial or total loss of the amount of their investment therein.

Unpredictable Market Value for Products

During the term of a Product, the market value of, and the expected return on, such Product may be influenced by many factors, some or all of which may be unpredictable. Many economic and market factors will influence the market value of a Product. The Issuer expects that, generally, the value and volatility of the Underlying(s) on any day will affect the market value of such Product more than any other single factor. However, a potential investor should not expect the market value of a Product in the secondary market to vary in proportion to changes in the value of the Underlying(s). The return on a Product (if any) may bear little relation to, and may be much less than, the return that the investor therein might have achieved if such investor had invested directly in the Underlying(s).

The market value of, and return (if any) on, a Product will be affected by a number of other factors, which may be unpredictable or beyond the Issuer's control, and which may offset or magnify each other, including, without limitation:

- supply and demand for such Product, including inventory positions of any other market maker;
- the expected frequency and magnitude of changes in the market value of the Underlying(s) (volatility);
- economic, financial, political or regulatory events or judicial decisions that affect the Issuer, the Underlying(s) or the financial markets generally;
- interest and yield rates in the market generally;
- the time remaining until the Final Redemption Date;
- if applicable, the difference between the Level or Commodity Reference Price, as applicable, and the relevant threshold specified in the applicable Terms and Conditions;
- the Issuer's creditworthiness, including actual or anticipated downgrades in the Issuer's credit ratings; and
- dividend payments on the Underlying(s), if any.

Some or all of these factors may influence the price of a Product. The impact of any of the factors set forth above may enhance or offset some or all of any change resulting from another factor or factors.

In addition, certain built-in costs are likely to adversely affect the market value of Products. All expenses, charges and funding costs (pre-financing costs) incurred by the Issuer in connection with the replication of the notional Underlying starting from the Initial Fixing Date (or, if applicable, during the Initial Fixing Period) up to the Issue Date/Payment Date will be deducted from the Strategy Value on the Issue Date/Payment Date (Initial Value). The price at which the Issuer will be willing to purchase Products from a holder in secondary market transactions, if at all, will likely be lower than the original Issue Price.

Exposure to the performance of the Underlyings

Each Product will represent an investment linked to the performance of the Underlying(s) and potential investors should note that any amount(s) payable or other benefit to be received under the Products will generally depend upon the performance of the Underlying(s). The past performance of the Underlyings is not indicative of the future performance.

No obligation on any other party to purchase and/or hold interests in the Underlying or any components contained in the Underlying

Investors should be aware that there is no obligation on the Issuer or any other party to purchase and/or hold and/or manage and/or sell any interests in the Underlying or any components contained in the Underlying or to have any right, title, interest or benefit in relation to any of the foregoing and there is no actual portfolio of assets to which any person is entitled or in which any person has any ownership interest.

Exchange Rate Risk

The Underlying(s) may be denominated in a currency other than that of the Issue Currency or, if applicable, the Settlement Currency for such Product, or the Underlying(s) may be denominated in a currency other than, or the Issue Currency or, if applicable, the Settlement Currency may not be, the currency of the home jurisdiction of the investor in such Product. Exchange rates between currencies are determined by factors of supply and demand in the international currency markets, which are in particular influenced by macro economic factors, speculation and central bank and government intervention (including the imposition of currency controls and restrictions). Therefore, fluctuations in exchange rates may adversely affect the market value of a Product or the value of the Underlying(s).

Secondary Market

The Issuer cannot provide any assurances as to how the Certificates will trade in the secondary market or whether such market will be liquid or illiquid. Due to the composition of the Underlying and the potentially limited liquidity of its components, investors must also be aware of an increased spread risk compared to other structured products. This means that during the term of the Product, bid and offer prices may differ to a considerable extent. Although the Lead Manager intends to provide market making subject to normal market conditions, he is not obliged to do so. Further, the investor may only be able to sell the Product in the secondary market at a lower price than the original purchase price. It is important to note that if the Issuer decides to repurchase from the investor or sell to the investor Products on the secondary market, it cannot guarantee to take back/sell unlimited volumes of the Product at the prices provided by the Lead Manager. Purchases of Product units on the secondary market will increase the available cash quota within the Product while diluting, in percentage terms, all other holdings. Sales of Product units on the secondary market will decrease the available cash quota within the Product while increasing, in percentage terms, all other holdings. If a situation arises where the available cash quota within the Product is insufficient to accommodate secondary market selling transactions by the investors, then the Advisor will advise the Sponsor about which holding shall be sold or reduced. If the Advisor cannot be reached in due time or doesn't provide any advice to the Sponsor, then the Sponsor has the right to reduce at its sole discretion any holding within the Product or has the right to reject to execute the secondary market selling transactions. The Issuer provides a secondary market with weekly liquidity, weekly cut-off is Friday at 4pm CET. However, if the available cash quota within the Product is insufficient, the Issuer can restrict the liquidity and postpone redemptions until sufficient cash will be available again. Secondary market transaction sale orders will be executed at Mid Price -0.25% but for secondary market transaction purchase orders no additional spread is charged on Mid Price. The new resulting cash quota will be reflected in the Product the following business day. At no time does the Issuer have an obligation to repurchase/sell Products.

Early Redemption

The investors must be aware of a possible early redemption of the Product.

Upon the occurrence of an extraordinary event, the Calculation Agent and the Issuer, acting together, have the right to, among other things, early redeem the relevant Products. If the Issuer exercises such early redemption right(s), investors should be aware that the early redemption price may be considerably lower than the Issue Price (or, if different, the price the relevant investor paid for such product) and/or the Final Redemption Amount that would otherwise have been paid on the Final Redemption Date.

Issuer Call Option and Holder Put Option

The Products provide for a Holder Put Option (i.e., an investor may, on any Put Date, exercise its right to require the Issuer to redeem its Product(s) on the applicable Final Redemption Date at the Final Redemption Amount), and an Issuer Call Option (i.e., the Issuer may, on any Call Date, exercise its right to redeem the Products, in whole but not in part, on the applicable Final Redemption Date at the Final Redemption Amount). The Issuer and each investor in any such Product may exercise its Issuer Call Option and Holder Put Option, respectively, at its own discretion.

Further product specific risks

The Products are complex financial instruments, may therefore involve a high degree of risk and are intended for use only by sophisticated investors who are capable of understanding and assuming the risks involved. Before entering into any transaction, an investor should determine if this Product is suitable with regards to the particular circumstances and should independently assess (together with the client advisor) the specific risks as described herein and any other legal, regulatory or credit consequences. The Issuer makes no representation as to the suitability or appropriateness of this Product for any particular investor. This document does not replace a personal discussion with your client advisor, which is tailored to your requirements, investment objectives, experience, knowledge and circumstances and which is recommended by the Issuer before the investment decision. Please ask your client advisor about supporting information regarding this Product.

The return on the Products depends on the performance of the Underlying. Since the notional basket of securities is actively managed by the Advisor, the performance of the Product depends on the quality of the investment decisions of the Advisor. As past performance is no guarantee of future development, the performance cannot be predicted at the time of the investment decision. Further, there is no assurance that all investment decisions intended by the Advisor will be realised and that its expectations regarding the performance of the Products will be met.

Investors should be aware that an investment in these Products generally results in a loss upon redemption if the value of the Underlying decreases. Consequently, the potential loss associated with an investment in such Products is linked to the negative performance of the Underlying. Investors in the Products should be prepared to sustain a partial or total loss of their investment.

Owning this Product is not the same as owning the Underlying or values covered by the Underlying or the securities referenced thereunder. The Issuer is not obligated to actually buy, hold or sell the Underlying or any securities referenced thereunder. Investors in this Product should be aware that the Underlying or any part thereof will not in any event be held by the Issuer for the benefit of the holders of the Product. Accordingly, changes in the market value of the Underlying or the values covered by the Underlying may not result in a comparable change in the market value of the Product.

If the Calculation Agent has determined a substitute or successor rate (such rate, the Replacement Rate), for purposes of determining the reference rate,

- the Calculation Agent shall in its discretion (acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner) determine (i) the method for obtaining the Replacement Rate, which method shall consider the industry-accepted practices for the Replacement Rate, and (ii) any adjustment factor as may be necessary to make the Replacement Rate comparable to the reference rate had it not been discontinued;
- references to the reference rate in these Terms and Conditions shall be deemed to be references to the Replacement Rate;
- if the Calculation Agent in its discretion (acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner) determines that changes to any definitions are necessary in order to implement the Replacement Rate as the reference rate, such definitions shall be amended as contemplated in Section 12 (of the Base Prospectus) to reflect such changes; and
- the Issuer shall give notice to holders in accordance with Section 1.1.6. (of the Base Prospectus) specifying the Replacement Rate.

Conflicts of Interest

The Issuer and affiliated companies may from time to time enter into transactions for their own account or for the account of a client that are related to the Products. These transactions may not be for the benefit of the investor and may have positive or negative effects on the value of the Underlying(s) and thus on the value of the Products. Companies affiliated to the Issuer may also become counterparties in hedging transactions. Accordingly, conflicts of interest may therefore arise with regard to obligations relating to the ascertainment of the values of the Products and other related determinations both among affiliated companies of the Issuer and between these companies and the investors. In addition, the Issuer and affiliated companies may exercise a different function, if applicable, in relation to the products, for example as calculation agent, paying agent or administrative office.

By receiving such payments in connection with the Products, the interest of the Issuer or such affiliate or the third party, as the case may be, may conflict with the interest of the investor in the Products.
