Under Singapore law, the Products are considered securities under the Securities and Futures Act, Chapter 289 of Singapore ("SFA") and its subsidiary legislation. I. Product Description

The Products are financial instruments which allow the investor to fully participate in the positive performance of the Underlying, but which also reflect the development of the Underlying if its performance is negative. The Underlying is an actively managed notional basket of securities only used for referential purposes to determine the Strategy Value, as described below under section "Underlying".

On the Final Redemption Date, the Product is redeemed at the Final Redemption Amount, which amount will be dependent upon the performance of the Underlying, and will also be adjusted for applicable Fees and costs.

The Products enable the holder thereof to benefit from an unlimited participation in any positive performance of the Underlying subject to the terms of the Product. Therefore, if the Underlying performs positively, an investment in the Products directly reflects the positive performance of the Underlying. Likewise, if the Underlying performs negatively, an investment in the Products directly reflects the negative performance of the Underlying. Therefore, the risk associated with an investment in the Products is comparable to the risk associated with a direct investment in the Underlying, and a total loss of the amount invested in the Products is possible, although any such loss is limited to the amount invested.

The Products are open-ended which means that they do not have a fixed maturity date. Instead, such Products provide for an investor a termination right (Holder Put Option) and for the Issuer an Issuer termination right (Issuer Call Option) both subject to written notice of at least one month.

It should be noted that the Underlying is a "notional" portfolio and there is no actual portfolio of assets to which any person is entitled or in which any person has an ownership interest. Investors in the Product should accordingly be aware that given the nature of the Product, the Underlying (or any hedges or investments made in connection therewith ("Hedge")) cannot and will not in any way be held by the Issuer for the benefit of the investors of the Product. For the avoidance of any doubt, the investors of the Product will not obtain any right, title, interest or benefit whatsoever to the Underlying (or its Hedge) and will not have any voting or other rights (including in any (notional) assets included in the Underlying (or its Hedge)). The Issuer is not obligated to buy, hold, manage or sell the Underlying or any securities referenced thereunder or to have any right, title, interest or benefit in relation to any of the foregoing. However, the Issuer may, at its sole discretion, buy, sell and/or hold assets, which may or may not be identical to the Underlying, for itself solely for hedging its risks in relation to the Certificates.

UnderlyingJB Asia Fixed Income II Portfolio

Sponsor	Bank Julius Baer & Co. Ltd., Zurich
Advisor	Bank Julius Baer Co. Ltd., Singapore Branch (Portfolio Management)
Underlying Description	The Underlying is a basket representing an actively managed notional basket of securities only used for referential purposes to determine the Strategy Value, and which is discretionary managed over the course of the term of the Products by the Advisor (see also below the definition of Investment Universe).

Investment Strategy (Basic Parameters) JB Asia Fixed Income II Tracker Certificate is an actively managed notional portfolio of bonds, which is based on investment advice and recommendation by the Advisor. The notional portfolio includes 20 to 50 credit bonds aiming to achieve a positive return over cash. The notional portfolio is the result of a bottom-up selection process based on a structured detailed credit analysis framework that encompasses sector analysis, profitability analysis, cash flow analysis, debt structure and liquidity analysis as well as relative value analysis among others. The Investment Universe comprises credit bonds with inclusion of high-yield bonds across all sectors denominated in USD as well as RMB, IDR, INR, PHP, SGD, KRW, JPY, HKD, AUD and EUR to enhance risk adjusted returns issued in Asia or the Middle East. Convertible bonds might be used as well.

Other bond-related products such as investment funds and/or fund-like products might be used for diversification or access purposes in situations where onshore dealing requirements are not satisfied. Structured products may be utilized for hedging / efficient portfolio management.

Investment Guidelines Only investments in securities (each, a “Component”) contained in the Investment Universe (see below) are permitted. The Advisor is permitted to change the notional composition of the Underlying (“Portfolio Turnover”) on a daily basis, subject to a maximum of 100 Portfolio Turnovers per year. At the portfolio turnover date, the Advisor will adhere to the Diversification Rules set out below. At any time, the Underlying can contain a minimum of 20 and maximum of 50 Components. Notional leverage, short selling and borrowing are not permitted.

Besides the aforementioned assets, the Underlying may contain a cash component in the Certificate's currency.

At the time of portfolio turnover, cash may not exceed 40% of the portfolio value. The cash component may temporarily reach up to 100% but will not exceed 50% of the portfolio value in the annual average. No interest is paid on this cash component. A negative interest rate may be applied due to market conditions.

There is no automatic rebalancing; rebalancing is at the sole discretion of the Advisor.

Diversification Rules The limits below are in percent of the total Underlying's value:

- each Component equal or above A-: Maximum 20%
- each Component rated BBB-, BBB or BBB+: Maximum 10%
- each Component equal or below BB+: Maximum 5%
- each individual company or group limit: Maximum 20%
- high yield bonds (below BBB-) and non-rated bonds combined limit: Maximum 20%
- sector limit: Maximum 50%
- country limit: Maximum 50%
- non-USD denomination limit (RMB, IDR, INR, PHP, SGD, KRW, JPY, HKD, AUD, EUR combined): Maximum 20%
- KRW, IDR, INR, PHP denomination combined limit: Maximum 5%

The following credit rating agencies are considered for the issue-rating of any bond Component: S&P, Moody's & Fitch. The best issue-rating of the mentioned credit rating agencies will be used where available. If no issue-rating is available, the bond Component will be classified automatically as junk bond (highest risk class).

Investment Universe	The investment universe covers credit bonds of listed companies/Government linked entities (such as government/municipal bonds, bonds of companies mostly owned by governments) which either have their registered office or which conduct the majority of their business in one of the subsequently defined countries at the time of investment: : <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – China – Hong Kong – Korea – India – Indonesia – Malaysia – Oman – Philippines – Taiwan – Singapore – Thailand – Japan – U.A.E. – Qatar – Bahrain – Kuwait – Saudi Arabia – Sri Lanka – Australia <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ■ Mutual funds that are tradable daily, maximum weekly, and listed ETFs ■ Structured products listed at the SIX Swiss Exchange/Euronext or issued by Bank Julius Baer & Co. Ltd. itself (listed or unlisted) ■ A cash component in the Certificate's currency The liquidity of potential security rights must be sufficient with respect to the issued volume of the Products. The Sponsor has therefore the right to reject components which form part of the Investment Universe (see "Right of Objection" below)
Change of Underlying Composition	The Sponsor will communicate with the Advisor on the viability of implementation of the Advisor's investment decisions (see "Right of Objection" below) as soon as practicable. No assurance can be given that all investment decisions will be implemented as intended by the Advisor. The Sponsor implements the Portfolio Turnover on a discretionary basis by reference to the respective net ask and bid prices realised on the market or, if it considers this necessary due to the market constellation, the Sponsor implements it on a discretionary basis by reference to the respective average net ask and bid prices of the assets. Upon every Portfolio Turnover, charges may be levied on the Product. The Advisor shall adhere to the Investment Guidelines and the Investment Universe upon fixing of the Underlying and upon each Portfolio Turnover. The Advisor is free to correct infringements of the Investment Guidelines and the Investment Universe which might possibly occur. No liabilities are assumed by the Advisor or any of the parties related to the issue, management or administration of the Product (including the Issuer, the Sponsor, the Calculation Agent and the Paying Agent) due to such corrections.
Right of Objection	The Sponsor has the right to reject Components selected by the Advisor should any situation whatsoever arise whereby the Sponsor due to (a) applicable rules, regulations and internal or external restrictions or (b) constraints or (c) any other reasons, it is not possible to buy, hold or sell the Components (as if the Basket is not notional).
Notional Reinvestment of the Returns	The Sponsor may, (but is not obliged) at its sole discretion, reinvest on a notional basis any returns into the corresponding Component(s). Should the new notional investment contradict the Investment Guidelines, the Advisor decides on the reinvestment. If the Advisor cannot be reached by the Sponsor within useful time, the Sponsor decides at its sole discretion on the notional reinvestment.
Adjustments	The Sponsor decides according to the terms outlined in the Base Prospectus how the Underlying is adjusted when dilution and concentration effects notionally affecting the Components occur, investors' rights change as well as in comparable situations. The adjustments are implemented on or around the respective trading day. No liabilities are assumed by the Sponsor due to possible infringements of the Investment Guidelines or Investment Universe which might occur as a consequence of such adjustments. The value of the Product is not retroactively adjusted.

Responsibility	Subject to the Investment Guidelines and the Investment Universe, the Advisor is responsible for the composition of the Underlying and the weighting of the Underlying components. The performance of the Underlying - and therefore of the Product - depends, among other things, on the quality of the Advisor's investment decisions. The Sponsor is only responsible for the administration of the Product. Neither the Issuer nor the Sponsor assume responsibility whatsoever for the composition of the Underlying, any Portfolio Turnover and its impact on the performance of the Products.
Costs upon Portfolio Turnover	0.00% p.a.
Information about the Investment Strategy	Further Information about the Investment Strategy is available free of charge from the Issuer upon request.
Composition of the Underlying	Information about the current notional composition of the Underlying (including its Components) is available from the Issuer upon request.

Conversely, unless previously redeemed, repurchased or cancelled, the Holder of any Product may exercise its right to require the Issuer to redeem such Product on the applicable Final Redemption Date at the Final Redemption Amount. For the avoidance of doubt, there is no and will not be any pooling of contributions from holders of the Product and notional profits, income, payments or returns of the Underlying for the benefit of all holders of the Product. Payments under a Product will essentially be in the nature of a debt due from the Issuer to the redeeming holder of a Certificate separate and distinct from payments under any other Certificate.

Investor Description

Investor's Risk Profile The typical investor of this Product wants to participate in the performance of the Underlying. At the same time, the investor trusts the Advisor to make investment decisions which will result in a positive appreciation in the Strategy Value of the Underlying. The typical investor profile is Considerable.

Investor's Market View The investor expects a general positive appreciation of the securities contained in the Investment Universe.

Investor's Suitability This Product is NOT a suitable investment if:

- the investor has a Low or Moderate risk profile;
- the investor does not have sufficient knowledge or experience in investing in derivative products and/or securities contained in the Investment Universe;
- the investor does not want to risk any part of his / her initial investment; or
- the investor may need to liquidate his / her investment for short-term funding requirements

Scenario Analysis

Assuming that the Underlying is completely invested in securities contained in the Investment Universe and the cash component constitutes zero (or close to zero) percent of the Certificate value,

Worst Case Scenario If the Strategy Value falls to zero, the investor will lose his or her original investment amount and will not receive any Final Redemption Amount.

Base Case Scenario If the Strategy Value does not deviate from the Initial Value, the investor will receive the Strategy Value less of any Recurring Fees accrued.

Best Case Scenario If the Strategy Value rises above the Initial Value, the investor will enjoy the upside gain in Strategy Value less of any Recurring Fees accrued.

The above described scenarios serve exclusively to illustrate the profit and loss prospects and are based on hypothetical price/level developments and calculated based on the value of the notional Underlying at the Final Fixing Date. These figures are neither an indicator nor a warranty of future price/level developments of the Underlying and the market value of the Product.

II. Profit and Loss Prospects

Maximum Potential Gain

This Product is aimed at investors who expect a positive performance of the Underlying. The potential return on a Product is dependent on the value of the Underlying, i.e. the investor benefits fully from an increase in the value of the Underlying over the term of the Product and the quality of the investment decisions of the Advisor.

Maximum Potential Loss

The potential loss associated with an investment in the Products is also dependent on the value of the Underlying. A total loss may occur if the Underlying and the securities notionally comprised in the actively managed basket, respectively, have no value on the Final Fixing Date.

III. Significant Risks for Investors

The following risk disclosure cannot disclose all the risks associated with an investment in the Products. Therefore, potential investors in Products should consult the Base Prospectus and the Final Terms and their independent advisor as to the product specific risks before making an investment decision.

1. Issuer Risk

Investors bear the credit risk of the Issuer. The Products' retention of value is dependent not only on the development of the value of the Underlying which the performance of the Product references, but also ultimately on the creditworthiness of the Issuer, which may change over the term of the Product. The credit rating of the Issuer is not a guarantee of credit quality. In case of the Issuer's insolvency or bankruptcy the investors in the Products may lose their entire investment even if the Underlying is in the money.

The Products are direct, unconditional, unsecured and unsubordinated obligations of the Issuer. If the Issuer were to become insolvent, claims of investors in Products will rank equally in right of payment with all other unsecured and unsubordinated obligations of the Issuer, except such obligations given priority by law. In such a case, investors in Products may suffer a loss of all or a portion of their investment therein, irrespective of any favourable development of the other value determining factors, such as the performance of the Underlying(s).

The Products do not constitute bank accounts or deposits at Bank Julius Baer & Co. Ltd. The Products are less liquid than bank accounts or deposits and bear higher risks. An investment in Products will not be covered by any compensation or insurance scheme (such as a bank deposit protection scheme) of any government agency of Switzerland or any other jurisdiction and Products do not have the benefit of any government guarantee. Products are the obligations of the Issuer only and holders of Products must look solely to the Issuer for the performance of the Issuer's obligations under such Products. In the event of the insolvency of the Issuer, an investor in Products may lose all or some of its investment therein.

Bank Julius Baer & Co. Ltd. is a bank pursuant to the Federal Banking Act (BA; SR 952.0) and a securities dealer pursuant to the Federal Act on Stock Exchanges and Complex Products Trading (SESTA; SR 954.1) subject to the prudential supervision by the Swiss Financial Market Supervisory Authority FINMA in Berne (Laupenstrasse 27, CH-3003 Berne; <http://www.finma.ch>).

2. Product Risks

An investment in Products entails certain risks, which vary depending on the specific type and structure of the relevant Products and the relevant Underlying(s).

An investment in Products requires a thorough understanding of the nature of Products. Potential investors in Products should be experienced with respect to an investment in complex financial instruments and be aware of the related risks. A potential investor in Products should determine the suitability of such an investment in light of such investor's particular circumstances. In particular, a potential investor in Products should:

- have sufficient knowledge and experience to make a meaningful evaluation of Products, the merits and risks of investing in Products and the information contained in the Base Prospectus and the applicable terms and conditions;

- have access to, and knowledge of, appropriate analytical tools to evaluate, in the context of such investor's particular financial situation, an investment in Products and the impact the relevant Products will have on such investor's overall investment portfolio;
- have sufficient financial resources to bear all the risks of an investment in the relevant Products;
- understand thoroughly the Terms and Conditions applicable to the relevant Products and be familiar with the behaviour of the relevant Underlying(s) and financial markets;
- be able to evaluate (either alone or with the help of a financial adviser) possible scenarios for economic and other factors that may affect such investor's investment and ability to bear the applicable risks of an investment in Products until their redemption; and
- recognise that it may not be possible to dispose of Products for a substantial period of time, if at all, before their redemption.

The trading market for securities, such as Products, may be volatile and may be adversely impacted by many events.

Products are complex financial instruments. Investors generally purchase complex financial instruments as a way to enhance yield with an understood, measured, appropriate addition of risk to their overall investment portfolios. A potential investor should not invest in Products unless such investor has the expertise (either alone or with the help of a financial adviser) to evaluate how the relevant Products will perform under changing conditions, the resulting effects on the market value of the relevant Products and the impact such an investment will have on such investor's overall investment portfolio.

Risk of Total Loss

Products involve a high degree of risk, and prospective investors in the Products should recognise that, under certain circumstances, Products may have a redemption value of zero. Prospective investors should therefore be prepared to sustain a partial or total loss of the amount of their investment therein.

Derivative Risk, not Protected Investment

This Product may contain embedded derivatives and involves a high degree of risk. It is not the same nor should it be treated as a substitute for traditional deposits. Hence it is not a protected investment.

Unpredictable Market Value for Products

During the term of a Product, the market value of, and the expected return on, such Product may be influenced by many factors, some or all of which may be unpredictable. Many economic and market factors will influence the market value of a Product. The Issuer expects that, generally, the value and volatility of the Underlying(s) (which the performance of the Product references) on any day will affect the market value of such Product more than any other single factor. However, a potential investor should not expect the market value of a Product in the secondary market to vary in proportion to changes in the value of the Underlying(s). The return on a Product (if any) may bear little relation to, and may be much less than, the return that the investor therein might have achieved if such investor had invested directly in the Underlying(s).

The market value of, and return (if any) on, a Product will be affected by a number of other factors, which may be unpredictable or beyond the Issuer's control, and which may offset or magnify each other, including, without limitation:

- supply and demand for such Product, including inventory positions of any other market maker;
- the expected frequency and magnitude of changes in the market value of the Underlying(s) (volatility);
- economic, financial, political or regulatory events or judicial decisions that affect the Issuer, the Underlying(s) or the financial markets generally;
- interest and yield rates in the market generally;
- the time remaining until the Final Redemption Date;
- if applicable, the difference between the Level or Commodity Reference Price, as applicable, and the relevant threshold specified in the applicable Terms and Conditions;
- the Issuer's creditworthiness, including actual or anticipated downgrades in the Issuer's credit ratings; and
- dividend payments on the Underlying(s), if any.

Some or all of these factors may influence the price of a Product. The impact of any of the factors set forth above may enhance or offset some or all of any change resulting from another factor or factors.

In addition, certain built-in costs (including commissions and fees) are likely to adversely affect the market value of Products. The price at which the Issuer will be willing to purchase Products from a holder in secondary market transactions, if at all, will likely be lower than the original Issue Price.

Exposure to the Performance of the Underlyings

Each Product will represent an investment linked to the performance of the Underlying(s) and potential investors should note that any amount(s) payable or other benefit to be received under the Products will generally depend upon the performance of the Underlying(s). The past performance of the Underlyings is not indicative of the future performance.

Exchange Rate Risk

The Underlying(s) may be denominated in a currency other than that of the Issue Currency or, if applicable, the Settlement Currency for such Product, or the Underlying(s) may be denominated in a currency other than, or the Issue Currency or, if applicable, the Settlement Currency may not be, the currency of the home jurisdiction of the investor in such Product. Exchange rates between currencies are determined by factors of supply and demand in the international currency markets, which are in particular influenced by macroeconomic factors, speculation and central bank and government intervention (including the imposition of currency controls and restrictions). Therefore, fluctuations in exchange rates may adversely affect the market value of a Product or the value of the Underlying(s).

Risk Relating to China Yuan Renminbi

The value of China Yuan Renminbi against foreign currencies fluctuates and is affected by changes in the People's Republic Of China, the People's Republic of China government's control (for example the People's Republic of China government continues to regulate conversion between China Yuan Renminbi and foreign currencies), and international political and economic conditions and by many other factors all of which may adversely affect the investor's return under this Product when the investor converts China Yuan Renminbi into his home currency. In addition there can be no assurance that access to China Yuan Renminbi funds for the purposes of making payments under this Product or generally may remain or will become restricted.

Secondary Market

Products may have no established trading market when issued and one may never develop. If a market does develop, it may not be liquid. Therefore, investors may not be able to sell their Products easily or at prices reasonably acceptable to them.

Under normal market circumstances, the Issuer will endeavour to provide a secondary market for Products, but is under no obligation to do so. Upon investor demand, the Issuer will endeavour to provide bid/offer prices for Products, depending on actual market conditions. There will be a price difference between bid and offer prices (spread).

Early Redemption

The investors must be aware of a possible early redemption of the Product.

Upon the occurrence of an extraordinary event, the Calculation Agent and the Issuer, acting together, have the right to, among other things, early redeem the relevant Products. If the Issuer exercises such early redemption right(s), investors should be aware that the early redemption price may be considerably lower than the Issue Price (or, if different, the price the relevant investor paid for such product) and/or the Final Redemption Amount that would otherwise have been paid on the Final Redemption Date.

Open-end Feature

Investors should be aware that Products have a so called open-end feature, i.e., the Products do not have a fixed maturity date. Instead, such Products provide for a Holder Put Option (i.e., an investor may, on any Put Date, exercise its right to require the Issuer to redeem its Product(s) on the applicable Final Redemption Date at the Final Redemption Amount), and an Issuer Call Option (i.e., the Issuer may, on any Call Date, exercise its right to redeem the Products, in whole but not in part, on the applicable Final Redemption Date at the Final Redemption Amount). The Issuer and each investor in any such Product may exercise its Issuer Call Option and Holder Put Option, respectively, at its own discretion.

Further Product Specific Risks

The Products are complex financial instruments, may therefore involve a high degree of risk and are intended for use only by sophisticated investors who are capable of understanding and assuming the risks involved. Before entering into any transaction, an investor should determine if this Product is suitable with regards to the particular circumstances and should independently assess (together with the client advisor) the specific risks as described herein and any other legal, regulatory or credit consequences. The Issuer makes no representation as to the suitability or appropriateness of this Product for any particular investor. This document does not replace (where applicable) a personal discussion with your client advisor, which may be tailored to your requirements, investment objectives, experience, knowledge and circumstances and which may be recommended by the Issuer before the investment decision. Please ask the Issuer for supporting information regarding this Product.

The return on the Products depends on the performance of the Underlying. Since the notional basket of securities is actively managed by the Advisor, the performance of the Product depends on the quality of the investment decisions of the Advisor. As past performance is no guarantee of future development, the performance cannot be predicted at the time of the investment decision. Further, there is no assurance that all investment decisions intended by the Advisor will be realised and that its expectations regarding the performance of the Products will be met.

Investors should be aware that an investment in these Products generally results in a loss upon redemption if the value of the Underlying decreases. Consequently, the potential loss associated with an investment in such Products is linked to the negative performance of the Underlying. Investors in the Products should be prepared to sustain a partial or total loss of their investment.

Owning this Product is not the same as owning the Underlying or values covered by the Underlying or the securities referenced thereunder. The Issuer is not obligated to actually buy, hold or sell the Underlying or any securities referenced thereunder. Investors in this Product should be aware that the Underlying or any part thereof will not in any event be held by the Issuer for the benefit of the holders of the Product. Accordingly, changes in the market value of the Underlying or the values covered by the Underlying may not result in a comparable change in the market value of the Product.

Risks relating to the underlying bonds

Bonds constitute debt obligations of the Bond Issuer. Products linked to Bonds are therefore linked to the default risk of the Bond Issuer.

In addition, the performance of the Bond(s) is dependent upon macroeconomic factors, such as interest and price levels on the capital markets, currency developments, political factors and Bond Issuer-specific factors, such as earnings position, market position, risk situation, shareholder structure and distribution policy.

Products linked to Bond(s) do not represent a claim against the relevant Bond Issuer and investors in such Products will not have any right of recourse under such Products to such Bond(s) or the relevant Bond Issuer. Products linked to Bonds are not in any way sponsored, endorsed, or promoted by the relevant Bond Issuer and the relevant Bond Issuer has no obligation to take into account the consequences of its actions on any investor in such Products. Accordingly, the relevant Bond Issuer may take any actions in respect of the Bond(s) without regard to the interests of the investors in Products linked thereto, and any of these actions could adversely affect the market value of such Products. The relevant Bond Issuer will have no involvement in the offer and sale of Products linked to Bond(s) and will have no obligation to any investor in such Products. An investment in Products linked to Bond(s) does not result in any right to receive information from the relevant Bond Issuer in respect of the Bonds or distributions on the Bond(s).

Conflicts of Interest

The Issuer and affiliated companies may from time to time enter into transactions for their own account or for the account of a client that are related to the Products.
